Letters & Agency Attestation Forms

The Therapist, PLC does not provide disability letters, companion pet letters, or letters regarding your ability to work, or any letters that would inform providers of your mental health history. You must discuss these needs with your medical or primary care provider. If a letter is required attesting the client's needs the therapist will provide it for a fee of $35 per one-page letter and $5 for each additional page.

A fee of $35 will be assessed for any form completion request by any outside agency that is 1-2 pages long, and $50 for forms of 3 pages or more. Letters are only provided to clients who have been seen for 12 sessions or longer. Clients who have not established therapy will be referred to previous providers or their primary care provider to complete these forms, and the agency will be informed that the therapist is unable to provide a professional opinion (this includes disability determinations).

Court Appearance

Clients are discouraged from having the therapist subpoenaed. Though the client's attorney, who initiates the subpoena request is responsible for the court appearance and testimony fees, it does not mean that the therapist's testimony will be solely in the client's favor. The Therapist will only testify their professional opinion and to the facts of the case.

The following fees apply for court appearances:

Preparation time (including submission of records)	$220/hour
Phone calls	$220/hour
Depositions	$250/hour
Email or written letters	$200/hour
Time required in giving testimony	$250/hour
Mileage	$0.54/mile
Time away from office due to depositions or testimony	$220/hour
Filing a document with the court	$100 (Plus court fees)
The minimum charge for a court appearance	$1500
Any and all legal fees and costs incurred by the therapist as a result of the legal action.

PLEASE NOTE: A retainer of $1500 is due in advance. If a subpoena or notice to meet attorney(s) is received without a minimum of 48-hour notice there will be an additional $250 "express" charge. If the case is reset with notice of less than 72 business-hours, the client will be charged $500 (in addition to the retainer of $1500). All fees are doubled if the therapist has to postpone or interrupt plans to go out of town.

Life Coaching Services

What is a life coach and why do you need one?

Life coaching is vastly different from therapy or mental health counseling because it does not address mental health issues such as depression, anxiety, or any other mental disorder. A life coach is a mentor someone who helps motivate and keep you accountable. Life coaching is usually for people who are not dealing with mental health difficulties, but instead feel stuck. They are not sure how to move forward in their personal lives or career. A life coach can help you set goals and map a strategy to encourage you and help you stay on track.
